Introduction

Language society of life all in the fields, especially legal relationships order in the field important tool is considered. The law texts clear, understandable and from debates case to be demand is being done. Therefore, law in the documents sharp, negative or social in terms of inconvenient was expressions instead of soft, neutral and official forms This is applicable. event in linguistics It's called euphemism. The problem of euphemism has always interested linguists. Euphemistic expressions serve as an indirect form of communication that quickly adapts to changes in public opinion. However, the study of these linguistic elements is complicated by several factors. For example, what may be considered a communicative norm in one context may be considered completely unacceptable in another language community. In addition to the widely recognized euphemisms recorded in dictionaries, there are a huge number of situational (situational) euphemistic expressions used in certain contexts, the euphemistic role of which is determined only by the circumstances surrounding them. Analyzing this phenomenon over time is a difficult task, since the "forbidden" terms may vary in different historical periods. In order to identify and study euphemistic substitutions, it is important to have a good understanding of the historical context of a particular period.

The Concept of Euphemism :

Euphemism — known one word or of the phrase meaning mitigation, socio-ethical in terms of more acceptable in the form expression Euphemisms usually rude, negative, scary or unpleasant to the content has concepts indirectly expression for is used.

Law in the texts euphemization not only aesthetic, maybe legal accuracy and social stability provision task also will do.

Euphemization in linguistics certain concept, phenomenon or the situation social, moral or psychological in terms of softer, more acceptable and neutral in the form expression process as interpretation This is event speech culture, pragmatics and sociolinguistics with closely related in society there it was moral standards and communicative needs based on is formed.

Euphemism concept ancient Greek in the language from the words “eu” — “good”, “pheme” — “to speak” come out " Okay, polite. " " expression " meaning means. Euphemization process through rude, negative, threatening or social in terms of inconvenient was word and phrases instead of indirect, formal or softened units is applied.

Legal in discourse euphemization separately importance profession Because law documents text not only legal norms defines, perhaps society members to the mind, legal to culture and state with citizen between to relationships also directly impact shows. This because law in the texts evaluative, emotional or sharp lexical from units give up delayed, euphemistic expressions through neutrality and impartiality is provided.

Euphemism main from the duties one is communicative balance is to keep. Legal in speech euphemisms through responsibility, punishment, restriction, offense such as concepts person honor and dignity unbiased without for example, " punish " word instead of " to be held accountable " " to drag ", " to imprison " instead of " from freedom " deprived to " such as of phrase's application this obvious is evidence.

Also, euphemism legal accuracy also serves to provide does. Euphemistic units often terminological in terms of clarified, legal to the content has is, regulatory and legal of documents one kind interpretation to be done help gives. However, euphemization from the norm more than at the level when used, the text comprehensibility decreases and legal of meaning ambiguity probability to the surface arrival possible.

In general, euphemism concept legal language culture important indicator is, it is the law in the text's formality, humanity and communicative efficiency in providing important role plays.

Law in the Text's Euphemism Application Reasons:

Law in the documents from euphemisms use following factors with explained:

1. Formal-stylistic requirements – law text neutral and impartial to be necessary.
2. Social sensitivity – some concepts in society negative attitude wakeup call possible.
3. Legal accuracy is direct appraiser words legal in the interpretation uncertainty brought releases.
4. Moral norms – person honor and dignity protection to do necessity.

Law in the Text's Euphemisms Main Types

1. Socio-legal euphemisms

For example:

- " criminal " instead of — " offender "
- " prison " instead of — " from freedom " deprived to "

2. Labor and social in the field euphemisms

- " unemployed " instead of — " temporarily work not busy with person "
- " disabled " instead of — " disability " was person "

3. Punishment related euphemisms

- " punishment " instead of " responsible " pull "
- " fine " to put " instead of — " administrative measure apply "

Like this euphemisms law of the text humanitarianism principles suitable to be provides.

Euphemism Positive and Negative Aspects

Positive Aspects:

- Law of the texts cultural and boot level increases
- Legal in relationships tension reduces
- Person right and dignity protection does

Negative Aspects:

- Too much outside euphemization meaning uncertainty take arrival possible
- Simple citizens for to understand makes it difficult

Therefore, euphemisms in moderation and suitable use important is considered.

Conclusion

Law documents in the texts euphemization event legal of the language important and inseparable structural part is considered. Euphemisms through legal norms society for acceptable, official and neutral in the form expressed, legal in relationships tension and negative assessment elements took This is taken. law of the texts not only regulatory and legal importance, perhaps their social-affectiveness also increases the level.

Euphemization legal in speech humanity, justice and legal equality principles language tools through to strengthen service does. Especially, the person honor and to the dignity involved concepts in expression euphemisms application legal of culture high level shows. Labor, social protection, punishment related and administrative relationships order eater in documents euphemisms social sensitivity into account received without applied, right to the subjects relatively respect and impartiality provides.

This with together, euphemism too much outside or inappropriate application legal of texts accuracy and to understand negative impact to show possible. Law documents wide public for intended because of in it term and phrases simple, clear and one meaningful to be important. Extra complicated or indirectly expressions legal norms wrong interpretation to be done take arrival probability increases.

Conclusion as in other words, the law in the texts euphemization language culture and legal of thought important indicator as manifestation will be.
